School Days Waived; Employees Are Paid

By Linda S. Corbett

Andover will go along with a special state board of education waiver and not make up the four school days lost during last week's State of Emergency.

The school committee agreed Tuesday night to take advantage of the waiver that, in effect, reduces the required school year from the traditional 180 days to 176.

It also means that Andover youngsters could still get out of school on schedule June 21, even though they've already missed six days all told.

Four snow days were built into the calendar, and only two were used up during the January blizzard. There are still two more to go.

Andover had the option of remaining on the 180-day year. Even with the waiver, however, the system still meets the minimum number of school hours recommended by the state. Last year the committee chose to go with the lesser hourly requirement rather than make up days at the end of school in June. A total of seven snow days were used last year.

In other storm-related action, the committee voted to pay school aides and cafeteria workers for the hours they would normally have worked last week.

According to Business Manager Edward Maguire, other school employees will be paid automatically because of provisions in their contracts. Because of an inequity that exists in the contracts of the aides and cafeteria workers, he said, there were no such provisions for them.

Committeeman Joseph Finn, who voted

What's A Little Snow?

Basic ingredients for weathering a record snowfall is to bundle up warmly, even let the ice form on your snowcap, then go out and enjoy it, as evidenced by Julia A. Hanlon, 11, a fifth grade student at the Shawsheen school.

Building Off To Slow Start

New construction was off to a slow start in January with only three permits issued for new swellings by Building Inspector Arthur Peatman.

The permits, totalling an estimated $109,000, along with $108,792 in additions and alterations, plus some sign permits resulted in a total of $221,337 in construction authorized during the month. Fees collected amounted to $3,545.

New dwellings: Frank Donahue, 24 Bateson Drive, $35,000; Yvon Cormier Construction, Copley Drive, two permits, $37,000 each.

School Days

against paying them along with Elaine Viehmann, said he felt the action fell within the realm of negotiations.

"We have to bargain with the various groups for everything," he said. "They ask for more and more and more and I don't see why we should turn around and start giving things to them."

He said a lot of people throughout the state were not getting paid for last week because of agreements they had made with their employers, and he felt the school system should be run like a business as well.

Mrs. Viehmann said the concept of paying employees for the days they had not worked was "a difficult one to begin." If the action was an attempt to protect employees for one pay check situation, she said, they could stretch out the deficiency over several weeks so they wouldn't lose all the pay at once.

Chairman David Ahouse led the vote to pay the two groups because, he said, the snow emergency was a situation, over which those people had no control. While not paying them would save the town about $7,000, he said paying them would not represent any increase over what would normally have been expended.

He also suggested that employees involved could show their appreciation by contributing some extra time, for evening events, for instance, over the remainder of the school year.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert objected to that notion because, he said, more aides than not already spend more time on the job than they're paid for. "If that's the way they're going to be treated," he said, they're liable to start abiding by the letter of their contract and put in only time for which they're compensated.

Committeeman Casimir Kolaski said he didn't feel they should be penalized just because they might not be as adept at bargaining as some of the other units.

Finn argued that he had bargained with one of the two groups, and that they had made the decision themselves to take a dollar increase in their salaries rather than in benefits.

Committeeman Alan Doerr joined Ahouse and Kolaski in the "yes" vote.

To Accept Letters Of Credit

Selectmen Monday night voted to accept letters of credit rather than bonds or bank books as surety for such things as gravel permits.

Acting Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen and Town Counsel Alfred S. Daniels informed the board that the letters of credit are an acceptable form of surety. They said the matter had been looked into with other Communities as well as banks and felt the town was protected adequately through conveyance of such letters.

Cohen explained that obtaining a letter of credit is a difficult procedure for a contractor who must provide bank with sufficient capital to support such a letter.

The matter was first presented to the board through a request from George Chongris who had asked the board to accept a letter of credit for his gravel removal permit issued for the Blanchard street area.

The decision effects the selectmen in their decision making process only, but provides a precedent for such as the planning board to follow suit, if they so desire, in accepting letters of credit in lieu of other surety to insure conformance to regulations on subdivisions.

Gravel Permit Approved

Selectmen Monday night granted a gravel removal permit to Scirappa, Thompso, DeLourey and Morey, for operations off Andover street in Wilmington.

The operation actually involves the towns of Andover, North Reading and Wilmington.

Foster's pond residents had presented objections to the granting of the permit at a hearing held in October, and in subsequent letters to the board.

Selectmen stipulated in the granting of the permit that hours of operation by from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and that no access to the area is to be made via Route 125.

Jurors Selected

The names of nine Andover residents were picked Monday night by selectmen for jury service in Essex County Superior Courts.

Chosen were: Bruce D. Cantwell, 6 West Parish Drive; Cornelia Lawrence, 23 Moraine St.; Yvette R. Bergeron, 2 Shepley St.; Loretta M. Levinger, 5 Castle Heights Road; Phyllis L. Pendleton, 64 Salem St.; Robert M. Nichols, 69 Gould Road; Raymond H. Lloyd, Crescent Drive and Jordan J. Burgess, 16 Canterbury St.

Selectmen In Conference Session

Selectmen will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in a conference session at the water treatment plant.

The Tuesday session is called due to the Monday holiday.

Agenda items include discussion of the Friendly Visitor program and some articles for possible consideration in a special town meeting warrant.

The board may also act on appointment of two registrars of voters needed to bring that board up to full compliment.

Acting Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen may also have a revised tax model to present to the board on Monday night, based on additional figures and estimates received. This will be given during a further discussion of the operating budget for the town.

Building Decision Due

The school committee's decision on a secondary school building project is scheduled to be made at their March 7 meeting.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert told the committee Tuesday night that at that time he would also have information necessary for them to choose a dollar amount for the project.

Building alternatives were limited considerably during a meeting Seifert had last month with a representative of the state Department of Education.

It now appears that the state would most likely go along with a major renovation/addition project at East Jr. High, as well as an auditorium, additional classrooms and perhaps some additional phys ed spaces at the high school.

Seifert said Tuesday night he would probably not come forth with a recommendation for changes at West Jr. High. Instead, he said, high school plans could incorporate West's needs as much as possible.

The committee's next regular meeting will be Feb. 28. They'll continue the second go-around on the 1978-79 school budget at that time.

Planning Session

Preparing the program for the drop-in center at Turning Point which gets underway Friday night are, from left, Betty Desjardins, Anne Moriarty and Danny Bolduc.

Teens: Nothin' To Do?

A drop-in center called "Somethin' To Do" is starting this Friday night at Turning Point on Essex Street.

"Somethin' To Do" is a new idea for Andover's teens. The center will be open from 8 p.m. to midnight with an early show from 8:30 to 9:30 and a late show from 10:30 to 11:30.

This Friday evening the entertainment will be provided by "Torch", a rock group from Andover High.

It is presently planned to have "Somethin' To Do" every other Friday with future shows including:

March 3: The Golden Warrior Minstrels.

March 17: Paul Fitzpatrick and Company.

March 31: Martha King with members of the Lowell University School of Music.

In keeping with the typical teenage budget there will be no admission charge and refreshments will be sold. "Somethin' To Do" is sponsored by St. Augustines youth board but is being run in cooperation with Andover's other churches and all high schoolers are invited.

Open House At Nursery

Kozy Korner Nursery, North Reading, is getting ready for its next school year. This upcoming year's program will consist of a variety of activities geared to the development of the child's muscular coordination, finger dexterity, auditory and visual perception, reading and mathematics readiness as well as providing an abundance of creative art experiences.

Kozy Korner is registering now for September. There are one through five day sessions for children ranging from 2½ to 5 years of age. Transportation is offered by Kozy Korner or assistance in organizing car pools. For additional information, contact the director, Mrs. Chiango.

Open House will be Thursday, March 2, from 2-3 p.m. to provide an opportunity for parents to visit and to register.

Over a ten-year span at today's prices, a gas range with an automatic igniter will consume $100 less gas than one with a constantly lit pilot light.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

As tax deadline dates draw nearer, you are invited to take advantage of the tax assistance program currently available at The Haven. Specific days for appointments are flexible, but appointments are absolutely necessary. Call The Haven if you want this free help (475-3968).

Monday, Feb. 20 is Washington's Birthday and schools will be closed that day and the next, Feb. 21. There will be no hot lunch on Monday, but it will be available at the Vo-Tech on Tuesday. Lunch at the Vo-Tech is at 11 A.M. and transportation leaves The Haven about 10:15. Call to reserve your place. Wednesday the hot lunch schedule will return to normal at West Elementary.

Also because Monday is a holiday, Food Co-op bundles will not be available at The Haven until Tuesday.

A lawyer will be available to Andover's elders on Feb. 21 for legal counselling, but strictly on an appointment basis. This is NOT the para-legal service offered before, but a fully accredited lawyer. It cannot be overemphasized that an appointment is required. Call The Haven for this free service.

Margaret Pike's class in art expression has begun and we are happy to tell you that there is still room for a few more to participate. Whatever your medium, from painting to pottery, Margaret will help you. Classes are held Monday mornings.

The next POT LUCK LUNCHEON at The Haven is scheduled for March 1 at 12:30. Please call The Haven to tell them you'd like to participate and so that they may coordinate the foods.

March 2, Miriam Putnam will present a slide show of a "Guided Tour Through England", beginning at 2 p.m. All are welcome. No reservations needed. Things to watch for — a trip to the Commonwealth Pier for the Flower Show in Mid-March and you might stop by The Haven office for further information on a trip to Washington, D.C. to see the Cherry Blossoms, leaving Mar. 31 and returning April 4.

The Haven has something to meet every need. If you haven't been there, why not plan to stop by today. It is located at 11 Essex Street behind the Library in the old Andover Theater Building and is open every week-day.

Per capita the U. S. uses more than twice as much grain as the world's average. Two-thirds is eaten indirectly as meat, Massachusetts Audubon says. The demand for beef raises the demand for grain which increases the demand for land.

Guest Speaker From Germany At Andover High

By Ilse Fersing

Visiting the German class at Andover high School recently was Mr. Uwe Foerster of the Goethe Institute in Boston, highlighting his talk with a series of slides showing regions in northern and western Germany.

According to Foerster, a native of Hamburg, Americans who have lived or traveled in Germany are generally more familiar with areas to the south, especially Bavaria, than with those to the north. Yet an accurate portrayal of today's Federal Republic would include not only its lovely mountain regions, picturesque villages, and ancient castles, but also its important industrial and manufacturing areas found principally in the north and west — the shipbuilding, trade, and publishing center of Hamburg, for example, or the smokestack-laden Ruhr district.

The average American is perhaps little aware of the vast social and political changes characterizing the post-war Federal Republic and her emergence today as one of the most stable and highly developed nations in the world, the speaker said.

Foerster noted the "permanent misunderstanding" that occurs between American servicemen and the surrounding populace, owing to the virtual seclusion of the American community. Arriving in Germany with little or no knowledge of the language, American military personnel and their families are generally found shopping in American markets, eating in American restaurants, fueling their cars in American gas stations, and sending their children to American schools, thus precluding nearly all opportunity for meaningful contact.

At the same time, never before has Germany been characterized by such an all-pervasive spirit of internationalism, a marked and healthy departure from pre-war days. American influence has been considerable, and is everywhere apparent. In city shopping centers, for example, how frequently one sees the word 'Jeans' in large bold-face type over storefront windows.

Andover High Notebook

By Renee Pruneau

There's a new halftime event at all the Andover High home basketball games. A group of eight students, known as the Halftimers, entertain Warrior fans and spectators with their fancy twirls and footwork.

These students dance to many different sounds, from Brick to the music from "Saturday Night Fever." They do both compulsory and freestyle dances. Innocent spectators have been known to be pulled from the stands to join the performers, this often proves to be most humorous, as a fan suddenly finds himself in the middle of the basketball court girating to the music. Both the basketball players and cheerleaders enjoy the show as much as the spectators and

Nutrient Retention

Rather, meat when properly cooked and refrigerated has about the same nutritional value in any form, according to the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

urge the dancers on.

The instigators of this novel idea are, Anita Palmer and Evelyn Vargas, the other dancers include Gary Anderson, Gerry James, Theresa Hunter, George LaBoo, Greg Moss, and Lisa Hollis.

Anyone driving by the high school on Jan. 25, 26 or 27 may have felt the tension emanating from it's walls. These were the days of the yearly mid-year exams. A great sigh could almost be heard as the bell to end the last test rang and students swarmed to the refreshing outside air.

Pupils who haven't looked at a book all year were caught studying and those who always seem to have a book with them now carried two. A whole new atmosphere comes over the school and its inhabitants during the three days of testing. Parties cease, highschoolers phones aren't busy at night and the number one question is "How'd you do on the test?" The most frequent answer is "Don't ask." The first day is easily the worst, if you have tests every day, by Friday you just want to get them over with, the fear and tension has gone. Well, Andover High has made it through midyears with no fatalities and is recovering nicely. The students are just about all back to their happy, noisy selves. Just wait until finals!

'Travels In New England'

By Raymond B. DeRuisseau

Photogenic New England has been exposed to the shutters and lenses of innumerable photographers seeking to capture the essence of this six state repository of Americana since the invention of the camera eye.

Now once again it has been done and done well indeed by a local woman who provides all who know New England, and those who would like to, with a contemporary look at our enduring yesterdays.

The photographer is Katherine Knowles of North Andover and the book, just published, is Travels in New England, Volumes I & II (Barre Publishing, Co., $15.95). The new book consolidates both volumes and is based on the travels in New England of Timothy Dwight, the president of Yale from 1795 to 1817.

Dwight was an inveterate traveler through New England at the turn of the eighteenth century. His records of journeys, the landscapes, the homes, the people and mores of this cradle of the new republic have endured and formed the blueprint for Travels.

The text by Thea Wheelwright, as adept at the typewriter keyboard as Miss Knowles is with lens settings and composition, follows Timothy Dwight's chronicles interweaving her contemporary view with the ancient traveler's observations.

The mouth of the Connecticut river was the springboard for the Yale president's journeys and the text and photos seesaw to various northern points of the compass wandering to Maine, New Hampshire and its white hills, a plodding trip to Vergennes, Vermont, to Massachusetts' Provincetown. Encompassed are the Colonial architecture, the fields, the hidden away country roads, the harbors and storm driven waves crashing on our rocky shores.

New England with its muted grandeur exudes its particular charm in all of the 320 black and white photographs.

Katherine Knowles' adventuresome forays in her trusty Mustang II with her faithful Hasselblad stashed on the back seat seeks the untraveled pathways and recognizes the vantage points which

Lost Jobs

A U. S. Labor Department chartbook, "U.S. Working Women," shows that unemployed women are much less likely than jobless men to have lost their jobs — they are more likely to be reentering or entering the labor force.

Eating a dolphin was considered a crime by the ancient Greeks who equated it with man for intelligence, affection, vocalization and care of the young. Romans called them porpoise, or sea pig, and ate them with relish, Massachusetts Audubon tells us.

On Dean's List

Robin A. Stupack, of Andover has been named to the Dean's List at Springfield College according to SC Academic Dean, Paul U. Congdon.

Ms. Stupack, a junior physical education major at the College is a 1975 graduate of Andover High School and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Stupack of 18 Nutmeg Lane, Andover.

Four thousand pounds of rose petals are needed to produce one pound of oil of rose, used to make perfume.

Katherine Knowles

produce prints to delight dyed in the wool New Englanders, who are happy to learn that they haven't yet seen it all. Her composition and subject selection lend the reader a reluctance to turn the page. Mrs. Wheelwright's running account of the travels prove a pleasantly sugar-coated Colonial History II course of the life and times of this universally known area as it began its onrush toward today.

The format of the cutlines is restrictive and perhaps they could say more, yet the pictures themselves eloquently tell the story as they should in such a photo-essay.

Travels will surely find its well earned place on New England bookshelves and the well thumbbed book jacket will often rest on the laps of appreciative natives and newcomers alike. There is little doubt that the new publication will open new directions for the modern day traveler who wants to see more of our historic locale.

About The Author

Essex County and its historic Colonial settings left an early mark on Katherine Knowles as she began to move abroad from her native North Andover.

Of artistic bent, in adulthood she sought a means of expression and found her metier in photography. Following a dedicated schooling in the subject, her product soon caught the eye of Barre Publishers. The resultant has been seven books depicting what New England is all about. Nationally distributed, the publications have whetted the cravings of Americans who haven't been here before to come and visit the antiquarian beauty of our six states.

Taking residence on Boston's Beacon Hill and later moving on to Cambridge she further absorbed the savor of Yankeeeland. Her continuing deep interests in the Museum of Fine Arts and the symphony performers at the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Huntington contributed to inspired appreciation of what she viewed in her constant travels.

In Boston, Portrait of a City, with text by the noted Walter Muir Whitehill, Miss Knowles records the charm that is to be seen in our capital city but so seldom observed by outsiders in the pace of today's living.

The photographer's regular sojourns to the Maine coast at New Harbor inspired Along the Maine Coast with text by Thea Wheelwright, who authored the commentary of the latest Knowles photo-essay. Here she captures the feel of the pines reaching for the turbulent surf pounding the stern rock-bound coast and reaching for their roots.

Cape Cod was explored and revealed in Cape Cod Journey. From wide expanses of familiar sands seen across salt marshes one can almost smell, to the gleaming white sails dotting a distant expanse of Atlantic blue. The Cape's charming, weathered homes. The Cape!

Walter Muir Whitehill again collaborated to write the text for Miss Knowles' Cambridge. John Harvard looking out across the Yard in wonderment, no doubt. Cyclists parading past the COOP. Longfellow's bust, stark against a backdrop of the Muses. The Cambridge of yesterday and today.

Also published and picturing the New England heritage as seen through an adept view-finder are: The Concord River; The Connecticut Shore and Houses of New England, Open to the Public which she illustrated for author Nicholas Zook.

Part of the Knowles stamp of noteworthiness is an insatiable quest for the hidden-away road, the New England secreted from the everyday paths travelers speed along. Her efforts merit a long look. She is an artist using our beloved environs for her palette and instead of a brush, she holds the shutter-release cable in a trained hand.

East Junior High Happenings

By Lori Pinkney

Friday, Jan. 27, East Junior High held its first East-West dance from 7 to 10, for ninth graders only. Its purpose was to let the ninth graders of both junior highs have the opportunity to meet before they join each other at the high school next September. All who attended had a great time and hopefully everyone will be able to identify at least one familiar face at the high school next year!

The school newspaper, EXPRESSLY EAST, will be released shortly. This is the third issue and Editor Debbie Gridley and her staff promise that it will be the best so far!

W.J.H. Activities

By Lauren Whitley

The "Blizzard of '78", as well as making news headlines, also rearranged a number of West Junior High events. The school hit play, M*A*S*H, was rescheduled for the second time Wednesday evening, Feb. 15. This production was from the original play from which the popular TV series is based. The cast consisted of about 30 students and was directed by Doris Bernardin and the student co-director, Janine Sternlieb. The student co-producers were Susan Sohler and Bronna Duly, and Jean Dunlavy did an outstanding job with publicity.

The East-West dance for ninth graders was held recently in the East Junior High gym. This was the first time such an event was held and the long awaited meeting was most successful, all students agreed. A disc-jockey played records and refreshments were served in the cafeteria during the intermission. The dance made a lot of new friends and also renewed old acquaintances for many of the students. During the course of the evening, East discovered we had many talented dancers, some of whom were Ken Taylor and Mike Chiklis. Kyle Dorsey, a West student also showed his style, which everyone agreed was worth the round of applause that followed. Altogether it was a successful evening and we hope to sponsor another dance here at West soon.

For the past few weeks the 8th graders at West have been taking the OTIS-LENNON I.Q. tests, being conducted by the Guidance Department. Another major project being done is the programming of the 8th graders into their ninth grade schedules. This will be done during the month of Feb. and will be supervised by the guidance directors, Mrs. Buffington and Mr. McKenna. Also, just recently, the Guidance Dept. has organized a group of students interested in talking about school-related problems and other issues.

In these meetings, the girls discuss these problems with one another and then attempt to work out solutions. The Guidance Dept. would be pleased to admit any more students interested in this type of discussion group. More information can be obtained from the guidance office.

All the school's basketball teams have been turning in outstanding performances. The girls have proven that hard work and dedication pay off as they are now on a winning streak. They were victorious over Chelmsford Parker with a score of 34-19. Monica McKinley put in a super performance with 6 points and 14 rebounds. In the East vs. Tewksbury win, 51-22, Ruth Ann Tassinari and Amy Starensier each scored 16 points. The East girls overwhelmed their archrival, West Junior High, 55-16. Amy Starensier was high scorer with 13 points and Jay Reming was great under the boards with 10 rebounds. The girls record now stands at 4-3.

The 9th grade boys basketball team was victorious over Chelmsford McCarthy with a score of 51-40. David Avery and Bill Foster were the high scorers for East.

East's 8th grade boys basketball team continues to roll remaining atop the North Middlesex league with a 7-0 record. Recent wins over Methuen, Salem and Andover West have moved the team's two year record to 20-1.

Outstanding efforts recently were turned in by Brian Moriarty and Mike who had 12 points apiece against Salem, Bill Caseldon with 13 against Methuen and Jon Pelletier with 15 and John Ingemi, Geoff Edmonds and John Ayalos all had 11 against Andover West in a 64-34 win.

Best Buys Listed For February

Hearty root vegetables lead the list of "best buys for February." And it's just the season to warm up winter appetites with nourishing boiled dinners and savory stews chock full of potatoes, onions and carrots.

Other reasonably priced native root vegetables are the sweet, nutty flavored parsnip and also turnipp — both the "purple topped" white variety and yellow-fleshed rutabagas, often called "Swedes" in Europe.

With iceberg lettuce prices up, opt for salads of chicory, escarole, spinach and celery, suggests the Massachusetts Food and Agriculture Department.

Cabbage is another good green vegetable buy, so plan to serve up slaws and also cooked stuffed cabbage for a change of pace.

Whiskey distilleries produced 180 proof industrial alcohol which was used during World War II as an additive to jet fighter fuels, Massachusetts Audubon tells us.

Best February fruit buys include apples, and excellent McIntosh, Cortland and Delicious varieties are now coming out of controlled atmosphere storage. Their packaging will be marked "crisp air" or "C.A." with the specific number of the grower's storage room.

Citrus fruit will add a ray of sunshine to winter weary menus. Grapefruit, tangerines and temple oranges should be reasonably priced and look for larger-than-normal navel oranges due to heavy rainfall in California.

Other good fruit buys are bananas, Bosc and d'Anjou pears.

In the dairy case, take advantage of seasonally low prices for eggs; milk is also a good buy, price and nutrition wise.

At meat and poultry counters, look for specials in whole broilers and chicken parts. Increased production will make pork one of the better meat buys. Beef production may be skimpier so prices might creep up this winter.

About 90 percent of all strawberries grown in Wisconsin are now being harvested by the customers themselves.

The bus will leave Shawsheen Plaza at 9:08 a.m. on Feb. 26 and return at approximately 3 p.m. Lunch will be available at the Village Tavern on the premises. Reservations are limited. Contact Pat Campbell, 99 Edgelawn Ave., North Andover, if interested.

Newcomers Club is open to all new residents in the area. Beside the activities mentioned above, there is a large variety of other activities going on throughout the year, such as craft groups, gourmet dinner groups, bowling, skiing and tennis groups, just to name a few.

Wednesday Services At St. Paul's

Each Wednesday evening in Lent there will be a service beginning at 7:30 p.m. in St. Paul's Church, North Andover. On Feb. 22 the service will be on "Healing"; on March 1 there will be a Service of Holy Communion using one of the ancient liturgies on which some of the very modern ones are based; on March 8 there will be a Service of Compline; on March 15, Evening-song. Adults and children may attend these services. There will be baby-sitting for those who need it.

On March 16, the Woman's Auxiliary is sponsoring an All Day Lenten meeting in the parish hall. Mrs. Hallie Wright of Melrose will be the speaker. The Day will begin with Holy Communion at 10:30 a.m.

Those attending are asked to bring a box lunch. Women and men of the parish are invited to attend as well as those in neighboring parishes.

Series On Church At Center

Models of the Church, a five week series, will be given by Fr. Albert Jozik OFM at the Christian Formation Center, River Road, Andover on Sunday evenings, Feb. 19-March 19 at 7:30 p.m. Fr. Jozik holds degrees from St. John's Seminary in Boston and St. Bonaventure University in New York. His experience includes parish and renewal center work, as well as considerable experience in organizing and conducting adult education programs.

Based on the ideas of Fr. Avery Dulles, the well known contemporary American theologian, the series will examine the church from several viewpoints in order to produce a deeper, overall view. The five lectures will be entitled; Church as Institution, Church as Mystical Communion, Church as Sacrament, Church as Herald, and Church as Servant. Registration may be done by mail or at the Christian Formation Center.

Pianist At Service

Carla Byers, teenage daughter of member Carl Byers, will be guest pianist at the Sunday morning service at the Unitarian Universalist Church. An accomplished pianist, Carla will provide all the liturgical music for the service and be greeted in the coffee hour following the service. A series on Personal Theology, taught by Christine Robinson, ministerial associate and Dr. Lehman-Becker, will begin Sunday evening, March 26th, at the parsonage. This no cost five week series will explore the tradition questions of religion, look at some of the classical answers to those questions, and help participants find resources for asking their own big questions and looking for answers. The sessions will be from 6-8:30 p.m., and the public is invited to attend.

'The Great Storm Of '78'

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

It was the kind of storm that parents and grandparents tell their offspring that "they walked to school through weather like that."

And, today's parents are now impatient to become grandparents in order to relate experiences of "The Great Storm of '78," and perhaps amplify on the happenings.

Hurricane force winds and over 30 inches of snow made for a memorable week in the Northeast, but here, in Andover, it really resulted in a lot of inconvenience in comparison to what other communities faced.

For Andover, the cost of last week's blizzard is conservatively estimated at $275,000. The streets were clear the day after the storm. The huge mounds of snow along streets were cleared, corners opened up, sidewalks plowed where possible and schools back in session.

During the storm, public safety, civil defense and public works crews worked steady, long hours to meet emergency situations and keep Andover roads open.

Students from Phillips and the public schools assisted elderly and handicapped following the storm.

All of this earned the workers and residents alike the appreciation and commendation of the selectmen, with Acting Highway Supt. Robert Volker and Ralph Tufano, DPW union president, on hand to receive the plaudits at Monday night's meeting. Both were asked to attend by an appreciative Acting Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen.

Actual cost to the town for clearance and cleanup operations as well as consideration of some damage to public buildings, will not be known for a while.

Acting Manager Cohen and DPW Director Robert E. McQuade will meet with state officials in Beverly today to submit their storm related costs in an effort to obtain reimbursement.

Cohen said he was pleased the state and federal governments were working as quickly as they are in assessing costs and working on the reimbursement process.

Local officials are asked to report to Beverly today prepared to fill out forms and present them to the state for consideration.

"We will seek what we feel we are entitled to," Cohen said Wednesday, emphasizing, that "assuredly, the major amounts of financial assistance must go to the shore communities, Boston and those along the Route 128 belt which were hit hardest." Coastal towns and cities, and the Metropolitan Boston area suffered great damage and losses in the millions in the wake of the two day storm which caused Governor Michael S. Dukakis to declare a state of emergency which banned vehicular traffic for all but emergency vehicles until the weekend.

In Andover, storm cleanup is still being praised for the dispatch with which the DPW crews and the hired equipment had the town free and able to move almost as soon as the flakes stopped falling.

Trucks of all sizes and description were employed in the cleanup task, and four-wheel drive vehicles played an important role in assisting people to do some shopping for necessities once the travel ban was eased at the local level.

Refuse collection and the recycling pickup service, cancelled last week due to the storm, resumed normal schedules this week.

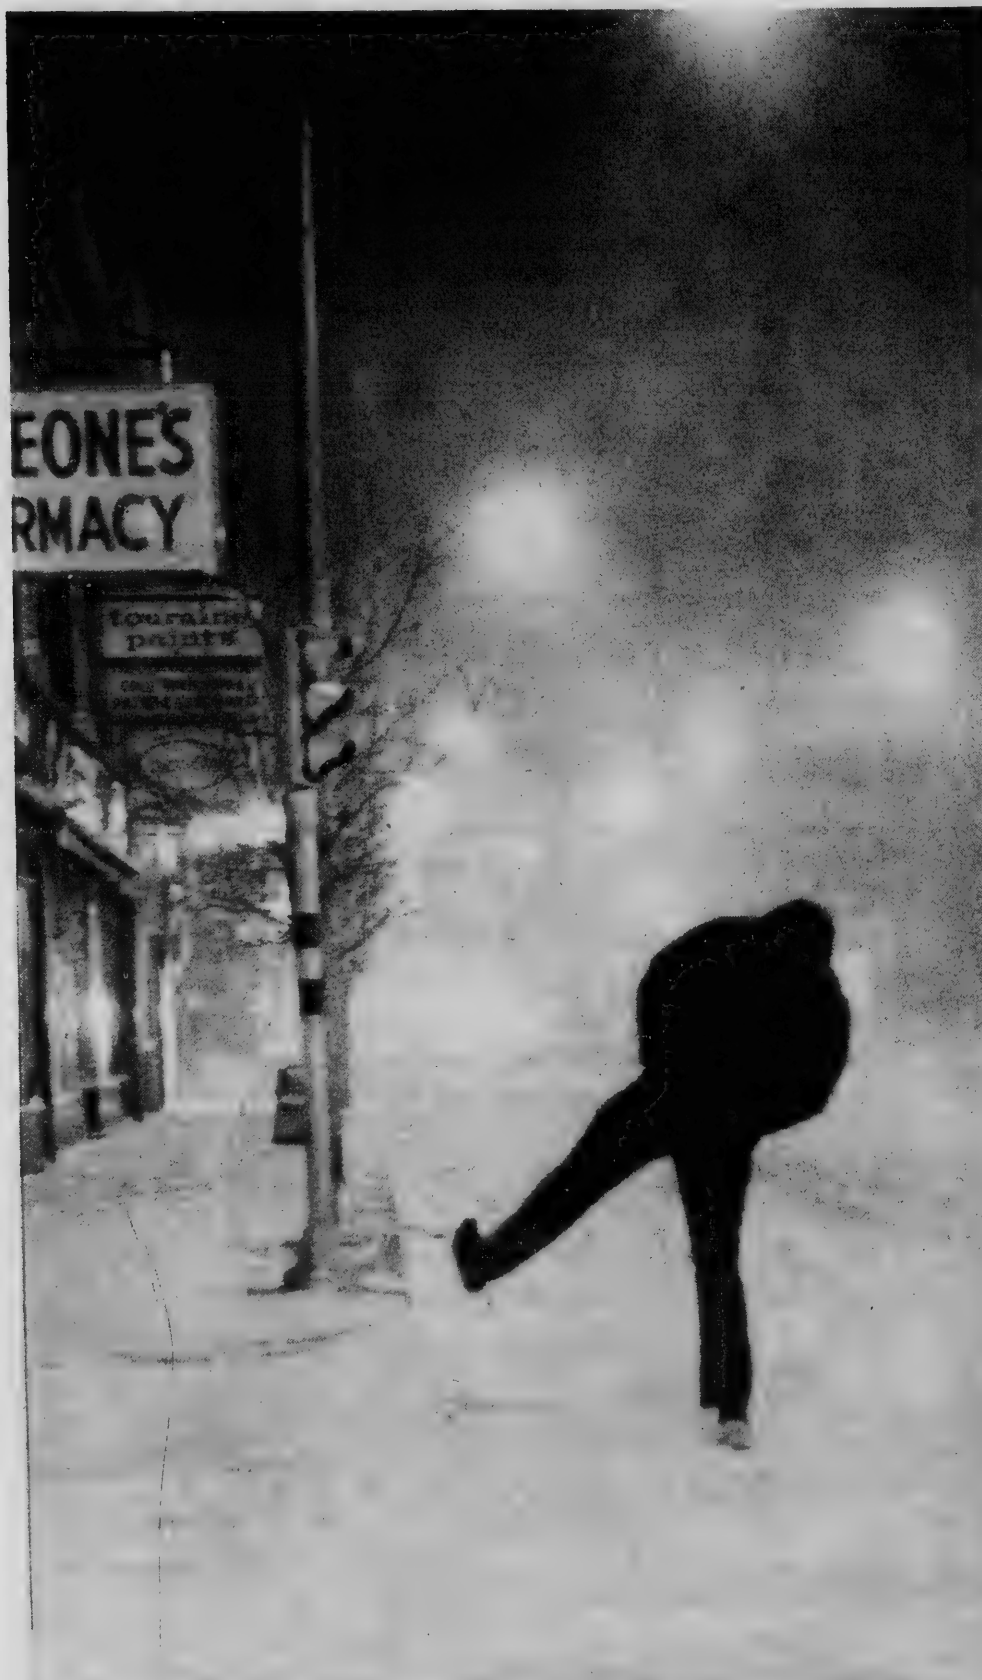

Schools were back in regular session on Monday.

Commuters to Boston, forced to use public transportation, boarded packed buses which were somewhat off schedule. And, the spirit of camaraderie which prevailed at the height of the storm, disappeared quickly in some instances, as pushing and shoving prevailed among bus patrons to get on the vehicles in Andover and Boston.

Letter carriers resumed their rounds last Friday, but delays in processing mail at regional points delayed the mails, many letters arriving locally postmarked with dates from early last week.

Food stores were popular places beginning last Thursday, with bread, milk, eggs and meat the most sought and earliest depleted items. With banks closed due to the storm, most food stores cashed personal checks as a convenience for customers.

Basically, Andover came out of "the great storm," in excellent shape. We'll all pay for it, regardless of which pocket it comes out of, local, state or federal taxes. But it will be a willing payment — if memories of being cooped up a couple of days while the winds and snow swirled can be kept fresh.

Named Assistant Superintendent

Charles L. Mitsakos, social studies studies coordinator consultant for the Chelmsford Public Schools, will become assistant superintendent in Andover early next month.

Mitsakos was elected to the $29,000-a-year position by the school committee Tuesday night, upon the recommendation of Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert.

He was one of 73 applicants for the job which was reclassified after former Associate Supt. Harry Westcott resigned last spring to become superintendent of a district in western New Hampshire.

Mitsakos will start spending some time in Andover "about March 8," while he also finishes up duties in Chelmsford. He is expected to be here full time about April 1.

He will particularly be responsible for articulation of curriculum for grades K through 12, and development of greater alternatives within the secondary schools.

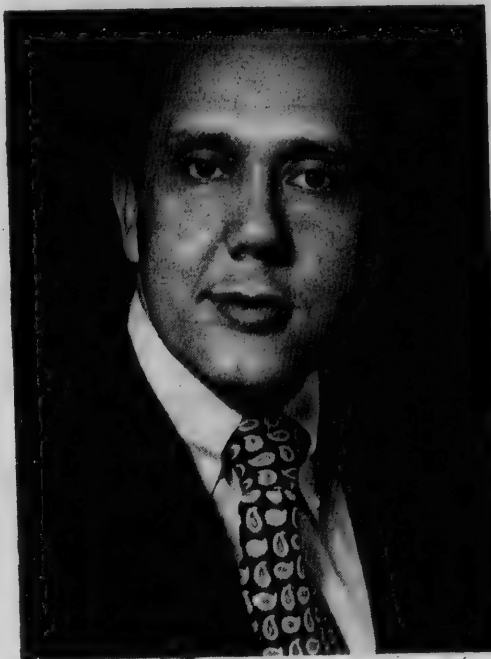

School Board Chairman David Ahouse Tuesday night called Mitsakos "a very impressive candidate," and said he felt "quite comfortable" with the appointment.

Seifert also described him as "extremely well qualified" and said it is "very clear" that Mitsakos has his own mind and that he feels "very free and comfortable" in expressing it.

Mitsakos has been in Chelmsford since 1967, and in addition to system-wide social studies responsibilities, has been assistant director to a Title I summer workshop program, acting middle school principal and developer of a performance-based supervision and evaluation process for all teachers.

He is also a parttime instructor in education administration and supervision in the Graduate Division of River College, Nashua, N.H.

Upon graduation from the University of Lowell in 1961, Mitsakos taught social studies and eventually became social studies curriculum specialist in Lexington. He subsequently served as a staff member-lecturer at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, Brandeis University, the Institute for Social Studies Curriculum Specialists at Carnegie-Mellon University and Fitchburg State College, and for National Science Foundation Institutes at Stanford, Indiana, Xavier and Boston Universities and the State University of New York at Genesco.

He was also guest lecturer in curriculum and instruction at Erdiston Teachers College, Barbados, Boston College, Framingham State College, the Hyannis Summer Sessions of Bridgewater State College and the University of Lowell.

Under a grant from the Longview Foundation, he directed a Family of Man Evaluation Study at Boston University, and worked on a school desegregation program in Fairfield County, South Carolina.

As a member of the social studies advisory committee for the Educational Testing Service, he has been involved with STEP tests. He has also been on social studies advisory committees for the Massachusetts Department of Education and for the Brandeis University-Colombia Peace Corps Training Program.

Mitsakos received his master of education degree in curriculum and instruction from Boston University in 1963, and did graduate study in curriculum development and supervision at Harvard and Carnegie-Mellon Universities. He received his doctorate in education from B.U. in 1977.

Mitsakos is presently a member of the National Council for Social Studies and the Social Science Education Consortium, and member and past president of both the Social Studies Supervisors Association and the Massachusetts Council for Social Studies.

He is a member of the board of trustees of the University of Lowell and president of the University of Lowell Alumni Association, a trustee of the Old Chelmsford Garrison House, former member of the coordinating committee for the Greater Lowell Council of Churches and member of the Chelmsford Environmental Advisory Committee.

He lives in Chelmsford.

Mrs. Lake Seeks Return

Janet D. Lake

Former selectman, Janet D. Lake, has announced her intention to seek election to the board of selectmen for the three-year term.

Mrs. Lake was elected to the Board in 1974, with a background of service to the town of Andover and its citizens. An active member of the League of Women Voters, she is also a past president of the Andover Chapter of the American Field Service. She served on the Council on Aging since its inception until her election as selectmen, serving the Council as secretary and vice-chairman. She also served as chairman of the Greater Lawrence Association of Councils on Aging. She was a founder of The Haven, Andover's senior citizen drop-in center, and was responsible for the beginning of a hot lunch program in Andover. For many years she served the Republican Town Committee in servicing absentee ballots for the shut-ins and others unable to get to the polls election day. She serves as a volunteer driver for FISH.

During her years as selectman, she was appointed to the Collective Bargaining sub-committee of the Local Government Advisory Committee of the Mass. League of Cities and Towns working in close association with the Governor's office. She was Andover's designated representative to the Essex County Advisory Board, and a founder of the statewide organization of Women Elected Municipal Officials.

Mrs. Lake was one of 30 citizens of the Commonwealth selected to participate in the first Citizens Legislative Seminar held in the State Senate under the direction of President Kevin Harrington. She is a member of the Advisory Board of the Institute of Governmental Services of the University of Mass., and the advisory board selecting social studies teachers for internships at the State Legislature. She has also served on the advisory

Abramson Is Candidate

James Abramson

James Abramson, president of the Andover Chamber of Commerce and a member of the town's industrial and development commission, has taken out nomination papers for the three-year term on the Board of Selectmen.

Abramson, whose term as Chamber of Commerce President expires in June, is president of the Capital Distributing Company in Andover. A resident of the town for the past seven years, he served formerly on the Executive Committee of the Andover Co-op and is a past director of the Greater Lawrence Rotary Club.

A graduate of Dartmouth College and the Harvard Business School, Abramson served for two years as a lieutenant with the Army in Germany and was previously with the Colgate Palmolive Company in New York as a product manager. He currently resides at 27 Kathleen Drive with his wife Joan and three daughters.

Sullivan Won't Run

Atty. Lawrence J. Sullivan announced this week that due to professional considerations, he would not be a candidate for selectman.

Sullivan had been contemplating a campaign for the one year term on the board which was created by the resignation of Richard J. Bowen.

Sullivan said this week that he would like to have been a candidate, having a sincere interest in serving the community, but considered instead that "I am a relatively young professional trying to establish a practice and feel this is more important at this time."

He said he still has political ambitions and may be back on the campaign trail at some future date, adding that he would remain in the public service as a member of the industrial development commission.

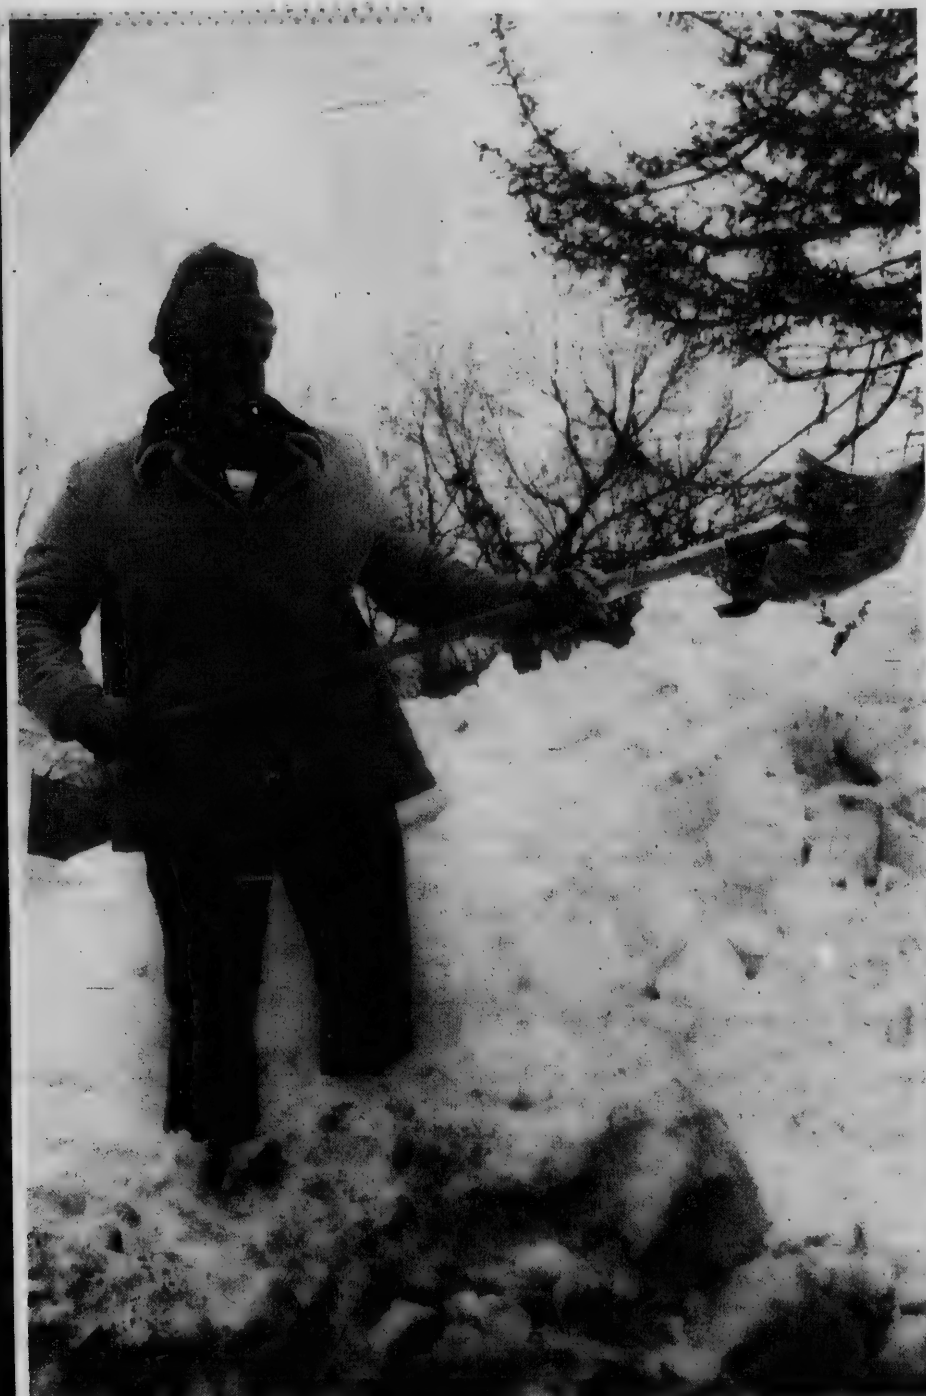

The attorney apologized to those who may have been considering running for the office, but were waiting for his decision.

Drama Critic Is Guest

Richard Eder, the new drama critic of the New York Times and an alumnus of Phillips Academy, will speak in Andover Friday, Feb. 17, under the auspices of The Phillippian, the campus student newspaper.

The public is invited to the 7 p.m. lecture in Kemper Auditorium, on Chapel Avenue, without charge, by the editorial board of the student newspaper.

A 1950 graduate of PA, Mr. Eder was recently appointed to replace Clive Barnes as principal theater critic for the Times. His topic will be "A New Critic Looks At the Theater."

New Exhibit

With snows piled high and temperature readings in single figures, the Peabody Museum of Salem offers a welcome contrast to the New England Scene with its new exhibit, South Seas Paintings of John LaFarge. The over 60 oils and watercolors of Samoa, Fiji, and the Society Islands, (including Tahiti) which this noted American artist painted during the eleven months he spent in the Pacific in 1890-91, depict the dances, ceremonies and landscapes of these far off islands.

Like the Frenchman, Paul Gauguin, who arrived in Tahiti four days after LaFarge's departure, the American painter was inspired and excited by the romance of the "noble savage in his spectacular lands." But LaFarge also found echoes of the classical art which as a young man he had studied

The automobiles of Mercedes-Benz. The legend continues.

Mercedes-Benz invented the automobile in 1886—and in 1895 produced the first car ever built on a production line. Over the generations, Mercedes-Benz has perfected one engineering advance after another.

Add to that an auto racing record of over 4,400 individual victories and you have an automotive heritage unmatched by any other car in the world.

Now Mercedes-Benz offers seven separate and distinct models for sale in the United States. Each one is unique. Each one continues, in its own way, the Mercedes-Benz legend.

At left, you see almost 50 years in the life of a legend. Look closely. See how nobly time touches these Mercedes-Benz automobiles. Their appeal is enduring. A characteristic that marks the truly legendary, and distinguishes it from the merely passing fancy.

Enduring value... and enduring pleasure

Many models of the elegant 500K shown here (No. 3, Circa 1935) are appraised at over $50,000. The rare 540K Cabriolet B (No. 5, Circa 1936) is considered a genuine value at $75,000. And based on average official used car prices over the past five years alone, the contemporary Mercedes-Benz automobiles have held their value better than any other make of luxury car sold in the United States.

The high retained value of Mercedes-Benz cars is a rational attraction. But they have an emotional raison d'être, too. To experience it, arrange, through your Mercedes-Benz Dealer, to drive one. You'll experience an unrivaled automotive pleasure behind the wheel of this charismatic car from Mercedes-Benz. Truly, the legend continues.

Le Car offers $321 worth of options, free. Now that's economy.

Buy Le Car GTL Deluxe now and drive out with these options, free.

Free Custom Sports Console. Normally $24.00. Free Custom Color Keyed Wheel Covers. Normally $50.00.

Free Deluxe Side Striping. Normally $45.56. Free AM/FM Stereo Radio with Deluxe Rear Antenna. Normally $201.66.

Le Car combines small car economy with sports car performance.

Le Car is one small economy car that will not bore you. It's an exciting, responsive car that's fun to drive.

Le Car comes with front-wheel drive, rack and pinion steering, four-wheel independent suspension and Michelin steel-belted radials - all standard. (Civic, Rabbit, Fiesta and Chevette don't offer this combination of standard features.) The result is the kind of handling and cornering that helped Le Car amass a total of 122 first, second and third place finishes in 132 SCCA races during 1977.

All this plus 41 MPG highway/26 MPG city according to 1978 EPA figures. Remember: these figures are estimates. The actual mileage you will get will vary depending on the type of driving you do, your driving habits, your car's condition and optional equipment.

A level of comfort and luxury unheard of in small cars.

Le Car's ride is so smooth, even on rough roads, that Car & Driver called it "a new standard for small cars." And Le Car has what may be the most comfortable seats this side of a luxury sedan.

Le Success Car.

In Europe, where people demand economy, performance and a car that's fun to drive, nearly two million people drive Le Car. (That's more than Rabbit and Fiesta combined.)

And in America, Le Car sales have more than doubled in just one year.

What's more, in an independent survey, Le Car owner satisfaction was rated at an amazing 95%.

Le Car prices start at only $3495. * And if you buy one before March 31, 1978, you'll get the options shown above, free.

Which makes one of the most exciting cars you can drive, one of the most economical.

*P.O.E. East Coast: Price excludes transportation, dealer preparation and taxes. Stripe, Sun roof and Rear wiper/washer optional at extra cost. Prices higher in the West. Renault USA, Inc. © 1978. *California excluded.

WHY YOU SHOULD BUY A PERFORMANCE CAR FROM A COMPANY FAMOUS FOR SAFETY AND DURABILITY.

If you ever dreamed of owning a car that really goes, you should wake up to two considerations: will it keep you out of trouble, and how long can it keep on going?

Introducing the 1978 Volvo 242GT. It not only gives you the performance you're expecting but it's built to deliver the safety and durability Volvo is legendary for.

You also get something totally unexpected in a Volvo: terrific looks. A silver metallic finish matched with black corduroy.

The engine is a fuel injected, overhead cam, cross-flow four. The four-speed manual transmission comes with overdrive.

For precise handling, the GT's special suspension system includes McPherson struts, stabilizer bars front and rear plus heavy-duty springs and shocks. Rack and pinion steering and steel-belted Pirelli CN36 radials are standard.

The 242GT is also built to keep you out of trouble. You get dual brake circuits with four power-assisted discs; a special valve on each rear brake line designed to prevent premature lock-up; and impact-absorbing front and rear ends surrounding a steel passenger cage to keep you out of really big trouble.

As for the paint job, rust proofing and undercoating, they're improvements on what has helped give Volvos an average life expectancy in Sweden of 16 years. (Figure from the Swedish Motor Vehicle Inspection Company.)

Come in soon, examine the new Volvo 242GT and take it out for a real test. It's a limited-production model but we're not about to hold it back on the showroom floor. That's the last place it belongs.

FOR '78, OUR FRONT IS AS ATTRACTIVE AS OUR BACK IS PRACTICAL.

Years ago, Volvo engineers solved the puzzle of fitting 74.9 cubic feet of cargo area in the back of a Volvo station wagon. For '78, Volvo stylists have added a handsome front end. Now you can drive a wagon that's practically beautiful. The '78 Volvo 245. Come see it. VOLVO

THE 1980's CELICA IS HERE NOW.

THE NEW TOYOTA CELICA GT LIFTBACK.
A CAR WHICH MEETS OR EXCEEDS
ALL 1980 FEDERAL FUEL ECONOMY AND SAFETY STANDARDS.

Toyota engineering advancements and wind tunnel test refinements have produced an aerodynamic work of art.

The cockpit instrumentation is a beautiful example of functional engineering.

Optional power steering and automatic transmission.

Optional sun roof (Available Jan. 1978).

Reclining bucket seats with newly designed driver's seat with adjustable lumbar support, tinted glass, 5-speed overdrive transmission and AM/FM/MPX Stereo are standard.

Reduced interior noise plus increased stability, acceleration and efficiency.

Increased interior room (4" at the shoulders).

35% more glass for improved, near panoramic visibility.

Remote controlled rear door opens to a fold down, split rear seat.

MacPherson strut front suspension, power assisted front disc brakes, steel belted radial-ply tires. All standard.

Equipment, features and handling comparable to cars costing thousands more.

Welded unitized-body construction to help maintain tight body integrity.

The entire body is "acid" etched for superior paint adhesion and then fully immersed in primer to help prevent rust corrosion.

Traditional Toyota economy. In EPA tests the 1978 Celica GT Liftback was rated at 34 highway, 20 city. These ratings with manual transmission are estimates. Your mileage will vary depending on your driving habits and your car's condition and equipment.

The 1978 Celica. Three models—the GT Liftback (pictured), GT and ST Sport Coupes. Dynamically practical cars for the '80's that are here today.

Completes Recruit Training

Marine Private First Class Allen G. Strassel Jr., son of Mr and Mrs. Allen G. Strassel of 14 Elm Court, Andover, has been meritoriously promoted to his present rank upon graduation from recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

He received the early promotion for his superior performance during all phases of the 11-week training cycle, which emphasized physical conditioning, self-discipline and teamwork.

A 1976 graduate of Andover High School, he joined the Marine Corps in May 1977.

Violet Exhibit

Each month, the Mass. Horticultural Society Library at Horticultural Hall, Boston, features a different special exhibit. In February it will be "African Violets and Gesneriads." Winter hours are 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and evenings when classes are in session.

Plains finish harvesting one year's crop, growers in the Lower Rio Grande Valley begin planting next year's crop. In a normal year, Texas-grown cotton makes up one-third of the total U. S. crop.

Fire Alarm

Unfortunately, nobody has come up with a Fire Insurance that will prevent fires. Properly maintained and engineered buildings can help prevent them though. When we handle your Fire Insurance we tell you more than just the price. Often we can point out relatively minor improvements that can reduce your premium, and your likelihood of a fire.

But whatever Fire Insurance you buy from us, you'll know it's the best available for the price. We'll stake our reputation on that.

Committee members working on a special school climate project at Andover High school include, from left, Brian Bresnahan, William Genova, Eileen Rogers and Thelma Clemente.

School Project

Andover High School is one of six schools in the state that has been selected by the Massachusetts Department of Education to participate in a School Climate Project. The purpose of this task is to study and report on the attitudes that prevail within the school community. A committee composed of students, teachers and parents has been working on the details for gathering the necessary information to complete this project. Selected students, parents and teachers will fill out questionnaires that the department of education has developed. The results of these questionnaires will be tabulated, and a final report written on the findings. Those serving on the committee are: Eileen Rogers, William Drummond, Gerald Grasso, Christine Keffeler, Stephen Richardson, Philip Wormwood, Thelma Clemente, Mary Hamilton, Jill Kennedy, Brian Bresnahan, David Alexander, Madeline Marad, Gary Cohen, Anthony Cammarata.

The entertainment of the afternoon will feature an Israeli Dance Group of 16 members who are undergraduates of Brandeis University. They have devised their own choreography from traditional Israeli dances and music. Besides performing for local Synagogues and other organizations, they recently performed at the Quincy Market.

Refreshments will be served. Reservations may be made by contacting Joan Krasnoo or Lillian Roth.

A Great Job!

At this point it is almost redundant to issue our compliments to those already extended municipal employees, students and residents of the town for their actions during and following the historic snow storm last week.

Well-deserved accolades have been coming their way since the residents, snowbound for a day or two emerged to find the streets clear and cleanup work progressing nicely following two days of 30 inches of wind-blown snow.

When we complimented public works and other crews following the storm the weekend of Jan. 20, we felt their work at that time was indeed worthy of the effort. Further, we felt somewhat secure that that particular storm was exceptional in scope.

But, one does not fool with mother nature, as the saying goes, and subsequently proven by the storm of a week ago.

Snow removal crews worked relentlessly in their attack on the storm, despite the weariness of the long hours required. Public safety and civil defense crews were attentive to the needs of emergency personnel and response to emergency situations.

The residents were co-operative in remaining off the streets even after the driving ban was relaxed and subsequently lifted.

Young people performed exemplary deeds, such as the students and faculty members at Phillips Academy who came down town shovels in hand to assist where needed. Students from the Andover public schools also pitched in to help out elderly and handicapped persons in the community.

The selectmen have expressed their appreciation to all for their efforts during this difficult period.

When we view what happened to other communities such as those along the shore, in Metropolitan Boston areas, along the Route 128 belt, then examine how well we were treated, we must conclude that we were merely inconvenienced for a few days, thanks to the attentiveness of our municipal employees.

It was a great job and worthy of all the praise coming their way.

Commendable Effort

In response to our friends and readers in North Andover, we would like to extend words of praise to Lt. Ronald Fountain and his fellow North Andover firefighters for the rescue of a woman from a burning building on Friday, Feb. 3.

About 6 a.m. on that date, the fire department was summoned to the Village Green condominium-apartment complex for a fire in one of the units.

Upon arrival, Lt. Fountain, in command of the first piece of apparatus, noticed Mrs. Eunice Carr in the window of the second floor. A ladder was placed to assist, but the woman disappeared.

Fountain dashed into the building, now enveloped in smoke, flames and intense heat, and went to the second floor room, where the woman had collapsed on the floor.

With the assistance of other firefighters, who had subsequently arrived at the scene, Mrs. Carr was removed from the building, given emergency treatment and transported to Lawrence General hospital where she was admitted. Her condition is listed as good at the hospital.

The action by Fountain and his fellow firefighters would well fit the job description for the fire fighting service. But there is always the line between theory and actual practice.

In the case of Lt. Fountain and his associates, the life-saving effort was performed in the face of risk involved, and we consider the actions most commendable.

Ronald Fountain

Praise

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

As a result of the recent snow storm of February 6th & 7th, I was stranded in Andover and could not return to my home in Weymouth for five days. I stayed with my mother, sister & brother-in-law on Main Street.

I was very impressed with the excellent job of plowing and snow removal that was done by the Town of Andover. The people in charge and the crews of workers certainly deserve much credit and praise for a job well done!

Mrs. Richard Lawler
Weymouth, Mass.

Thanks —

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

On behalf of the residents of Academy Nursing Home in Andover, many thanks and much gratitude goes to the Andover and Lawrence Police Departments for their aid in transporting members of the staff to the nursing home during the snow emergency. Also two of our fellow residents: George Knipe, who did a marvelous job manning the house telephone for two days and Gerald Langlois for working along with the nursing assistants in some of their duties. Four employees each of whom remained here for 60 hours: Dorothy Stewart, R.N., Joseph Olisky, Maintenance, E.M.T., Jamie Bathally, Nursing Assistant, and Frank Lustenburger, Administrative Intern.

A special heartfelt thanks to Ingeborg Traulsen of Andover, a neighbor, who called at 7:00 a.m. in the morning offering her assistance and was so helpful as a volunteer. We would also like to thank many members of the staff who fought their way in through the storm to insure that our home was able to function normally.

Special Caring

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

My sympathy is with Mrs. Hoyt and Mrs. Levine (Townsman Feb. 9) as the dangerously high snowbanks and unplowed sidewalks necessitate my taking my fourth grade daughter to school. But the old saying "I am not by brothers keeper" was annihilated in my mind after witnessing the principal of Shawsheen School, Miss Isabelle Dobbie, standing at a dangerous intersection making sure of the safety of our children as they walked to school.

We parents and children hopefully will never take this kind of caring for granted. Thank you Miss Dobbie.

Congratulations

To The Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

Often things that are consistently done well are taken for granted. This may be the case with the excellent snow removal work of Andover's Department of Public Works.

However, the Andover Chamber of Commerce believes that the effort given during last weeks "blizzard of the century" should not go unmentioned. While other towns and municipalities struggled for days and are even yet struggling, your crew had the town open within forty-eight hours of the storm's end.

On behalf of all the members of the Chamber we wish to extend our congratulations on a job well done!

IRS Facing Taxpayers' Rebellion

WASHINGTON — The Internal Revenue Service is quietly trying to cope with a growing taxpayers' rebellion. An estimated 2,000 activists are joining the revolt every day.

The American people are up in arms over soaring taxes and declining government services. Polls show that three-fourths of the populace regard the federal income tax as unfair.

They also groan against its complexity. Our income tax code is an ant bed of regulations — 6,000 pages of exceptions, exemptions and alternatives.

But the chief cause of tax resistance, aside from man's reluctance to be plucked like a chicken, is the runaway rise in taxation.

Hundreds of thousands of taxpayers have settled the problem simply by refusing to pay any more taxes. Since the Watergate scandals, the anti-government mood has sharpened; the tax bite has deepened; and tax resistance has grown.

The resistance has gone far beyond the usual manipulation of loopholes and shelters. Billions were lost last year because of outright criminal evasion by once law-abiding, average Americans.

Yet it is still a submerged revolution. It's true that thousands of principled tax rebels are in open defiance, deploying constitutional strategems against the government. But most of the millions of evaders don't advertise their insurgency. The government keeps it quiet, too, for fear that publicity could cause a wildfire contagion.

The open resisters have staged no Boston Tea Parties. But they have declared their defiance in more orderly ways. They maintain official headquarters, publish newsletters and manuals, launch membership drives, retain legal counsel and work with legislators.

Many resisters sign blank returns to avoid the criminal charge of non-filing. Then they append to the blank return a collection of legal arguments.

The IRS is moving cautiously against these tax rebels. Tax agents fear that a court ruling in favor of a resister on one point or another could set off an avalanche of resistance. So many escape the day of reckoning. But over the years, the IRS has obtained convictions against some tax fighters.

It remains to be seen who will win the tax rebellion. But it's a battle that is hard to deny in a nation that was born in a tax revolt.

Yanqui Come Down! — Nicaraguan dictator Anastasio Somoza, say our diplomatic sources, is currently facing the most serious crisis in his career as a dictator. It began on Jan. 10, when opposition newspaper publisher Pedro Joaquin Chamorro was gunned down in the streets.

This was a personal shock to us. Chamorro had helped us develop stories about corruption in his country. These were stories that the dictator kept out of Nicaraguan newspapers.

For the oppressed people of Nicaragua, the killing of Chamorro apparently was the last straw. Thousands of workers and businessmen alike walked out on strike. Over the past three weeks, the strike has been about 75 percent effective.

Somoza in his hour of need had no one to handle the foreign reporters who rushed to Nicaragua to cover the strike. So he brought in an American public relations man from Madison Avenue. His name is Norman Wolfson. He is paid $84,000 a year, plus expenses. Every morning at 10, he gives the press Somoza's latest version of events.

Wheat Deals — Agriculture Secretary Robert Bergland will fly to the Soviet Union in May to discuss another wheat deal. He may also stop off in Poland and Romania.

The Soviets have already agreed to purchase between six million and eight million tons of grain each year from the United States. But this year, we have agreed to sell them 15 million tons.

Bergland doesn't like these one-shot deals. He wants a steady market for American farmers. He'll talk to the Soviets, therefore, about a long-term agreement.

He'll also make his own appraisal of Soviet agricultural production. The Soviets have agreed to show him around their farm belt. He'll try to estimate how much American wheat, corn and feed grains the Soviet Union will need.

The Poles are also interested in purchasing four million to six million tons of grain from the United States each year. Bergland will probably stop in Poland to discuss a deal. It's less certain that he will go to Romania.

Diplomatic Digest — American diplomats have once again asked the Russians to release two American citizens who have been prisoners in the Soviet Union for over 30 years. John and Lorraine Jodwalis were visiting Lithuania with their mother when the Soviets annexed that country after World War II. The Americans asked to return to the United States, but the Soviets responded by jailing them in Siberia.

Six years ago, U.S. officials banned certain crowd control chemicals that caused serious third-degree burns. But private American companies have continued to sell these products abroad. Brazilian police, for example, are using them to quell student demonstrators.

Down The Years With The Townsman

THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 16, 1978

75 Years Ago — February, 1903

The Andover Roller Polo team defeated the Clover Leaves of Lawrence, in an amateur league contest last Thursday night at Lawrence City Hall. Alex Ritchie made of the goals and Joe Soutar the other in an exciting match preceding the professional contest.

It is expected that a move will soon be made in regard to the proposed road between Tewksbury and South Lawrence, via Andover. Estimated costs of construction and land takings are now in the hands of the county commissioners. The electric railway has offered to pay a portion of the cost for the franchise to run over the road.

Gerald D'Arch, George Chandler, and James M. Abbott were among Andover residents to attend the mid-winter dance of the Johnson High alumni held at Stevens Hall in North Andover Friday. The dance had a Valentine's theme.

There are 26 articles in the town warrant this year, none of which present any great monetary expenditure. But, the town has several matters to appropriate money for this year due to decisions of the past which will have an upward effect on the tax rate.

Fred M. Temple of Andover hill has a record to be proud of, for his 5 hens of the Rhode Island Red variety have produced 76 dozen and ten eggs for the month of January.

50 Years Ago — February, 1928

The People's Ice Company has finished harvesting ice at Pomp's and their customers may be assured that sufficient supply is on hand. The average thickness of 12 inches and four ice houses are now filled to capacity.

Dr. Nathaniel Stowers, popular local dentist, has announced his candidacy for a seat on the school committee in the coming election.

Combination 2 hose chemical and pump engine is currently undergoing repairs by the American LaFrance representatives at Central fire station. The engine was operated at capacity for several hours at the Converse barn fire last week. A smaller pump has been loaned to the town by American LaFrance during repairs.

The Finance committee in its annual report has turned down a request for consideration of construction of additions to the high school for a junior high building, feeling it needs more study by the school committee. Approved by the group are requests for renovation to town hall, River Road improvements, fencing and bleachers for the playstead and some water extensions.

Andover has probably never heard a recital more pleasing to the ear and memorable than the one performed by Pablo Casals last evening at George Washington Hall.

25 Years Ago — February, 1953

Ruth Sullivan has been named valedictorian and Robert Henderson salutatorian for the Punchard high school at commencement exercises in June. They are first and second in scholastic ranking at the school.

Edward P. Pettoruto, 60 Magnolia Ave., had tendered his resignation from the police department to accept a full time position as inspector with the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

A local group headed by Atty. Richard K. Gordon and Raymond S. LaRosa, is campaigning for the article in this year's town warrant to mandate open meetings for the selectmen.

Incomplete returns from this year's

Polio Drive indicate a larger response than a year ago. J. Woodrow Crowley reports that $6547 has already been returned with more still to come.

The issue of increasing the size of the school committee to nine members will be debated at a special discussion session scheduled for Thursday at the library.

St. Robert's Increases League Lead

By Rick Harrison

Undefeated St. Robert's E (6-0), making excellent use of the foul line and the absence of two high-scoring Ballardvale United players, trimmed BU 36-28 to move further ahead in the Senior Division of the Andover Church Basketball League.

That triumph, coupled with St. Augustine A's night off, increased the St. Robert's lead to 1½ games over St. Augustine and two full games over BU.

In other recent action at West Junior High, St. Robert's A squared its record with a 39-22 conquest of South-Baptist and Christ Church evened its ledger with a 39-32 victory over St. Augustine B.

In games the previous week, St. Robert's B downed Christ Church, 33-16, Ballardvale stopped South-Baptist, 41-30, and St. Augustine A toppled St. Robert's A, 33-23.

Steve Rathbun of South-Baptist continues to lead the division in scoring with 90 points, followed by Mark Rogers of Christ Church with 74 in one less game.

St. Robert's B, 36-28

Ballardvale united could have moved into a first place tie by berating St. Robert's B, but BU fell into a 10-0 first quarter hold and never quite recovered.

United held a 14-12 edge in fieldgoals made, but St. Robert's B. converted 12 free throws to none for Ballardvale and that was the difference.

BU was also minus the services of two consistent scorers, Jay McLeod and Bryan Liang.

United cut the gap to 16-10 at halftime and had it down to 24-20 after three periods, but Phil Farr and Don Lindsey netted four points apiece to pace a 12-8 St. Robert's burst in the final period to sew it up.

Don O'Brien paced the well-balanced victors' attack with 8 points, Scott Nottle added 7, Lindsey 6, Bot Leitch 5, Farr 4, Bill Troy 4 and Dave Spychalski had a second period bucket.

Scott Andrade, Mike Murphy and Tim MacLean also played well for St. Robert's.

Bill Crabtree was game-high for Ballardvale with 12 points, Kevin Hollenbeck chipped in 8 (all in the third quarter), and single baskets were contributed by Carolyn Darling, Todd McLeod, Kurt Jensen and Pete Crabtree. Other fine floor games were added by Robbie Robinson, Dave Brown and Russ Bird.

St. Robert's A, 39-22

St. Robert's A outscored South-Baptist in every quarter and led 10-4, 20-8 and 26-13 at the first three checkpoints.

Mike Leary pumped in 11 points and A. J. McGovern added 10 as the double-digit performers for St. Robert's A.

Gregg Praetz flipped through 7 points, Yvan Levesque had 5, and solo fieldgoals were added by Barry Lemieux and Tom Palma. Ken Saliba pocketed a pair of free throws to complete the offense.

Steve Rathbun of South-Baptist emerged as game-high with 12 points, while teammate Tom Stedman chipped in 5, Art Dunleavy 3 and Scott Tobey 2 points.

Mike Carbone and Larry Soule also played well for S-B.

Christ Church, 39-32

C-C had problems shaking St. Augustine B, which led 5-3 after one quarter and trailed only 10-9 at the half. A 15-10 third quarter helped Christ Church get some breathing room, and the rivals traded buckets over much of the fourth stanza.

Mark Frost was game-high marksman and the lone twin digit man for C-C with 15 points. Mark Rogers tossed in 9 points, seven of them in the second half, while John Rogers and Eric Fredette scored 6 apiece.

Capping the winners' attack were Eric Durant, with a third quarter basket, and Mark Mitchell who swished an early charity.

Todd Durant also played a strong game for the Crusaders.

Steve Farrington sparked St. Augustine B with 10 points, eight after intermission. Greg Sheppard and Steve Parker stuffed 7 markers each, Tim Madden 6, and John Parker had a first quarter bucket.

Mark Paradis and Tom Galvin were other standouts for St. Augustine.

St. Robert's B, 33-16

St. Robert's B erased an early 6-0 deficit by outscoring Christ Church 33-10 the rest of the way enroute to its easy comeback win.

Phil Farr topped the diversified victor's attack with 7 points while Don O'Brien, Bill Troy and Bob Leitch dunked 6 apiece.

Don Lindsey popped through 4 points, Scott Nottle had a third period bucket and Dave Shychalski a third quarter floor connection.

Mark Rogers and Mark Frost led C-C with 7 markers each, while Mike Blair contributed a second period fieldgoal.

Ballardvale, 41-30

BU unveiled a nine-player attack, grabbed a 14-4 first period advantage; and then played South-Baptist about even for the 41-30 decision.

Bill Crabtree powered United with 13 points, followed by Jay McLeod with 8, Kevin Hollenbeck 4, Jim Cassidy 4, Robbie Robinson 4, Lee Hollenbeck 2, Dave Brown 2, Kurt Jensen 2 and Russ Bird a pair of free throws.

Scott Tobey sparked the South-Baptist counterattack with 12 points, Steve Rathbun added 10, Tim Whitton 4, Tom Stedman 2 and Mike Carbone a brace of charities.

St. Augustine A, 33-23

St. Augustine A remained in the thick of the title fight, using a 10-4 third quarter spurt as the springboard to a 33-23 conquest of St. Robert's A.

The once-beaten victors were led by Brian McGettrick with 9 points and Ed Powers 8. Ted Kelley and Dennis Sheehan popped in 4 points each while Tim Hart, Dave Fluet, Pat Deaudine and Rich Sam-buco added single hoops.

Mike Leary and Gregg Praetz fired in 8 points apiece for St. Robert's A, Bruce Crochetiere banged home 5 and A. J. McGovern had a fourth quarter basket.

board of the Greater Lawrence Friendly Visitor program and is currently the director of the Carvell Chapter for the Blind.

As Selectman, Mrs. Lake devoted herself to the firming up of reasonable and fiscally prudent human services as well as careful management of the tax dollar.

In asking to be returned to the board of selectmen, Mrs. Lake hopes to be given the opportunity to exercise her sound judgment in the many challenges the future of Andover holds. She sees among those challenges the preservation of a viable central business district, a battle she has been fighting for many years, keeping commerce out of the town periphery and concentrated in the central district. Affordable public transportation continues to be an area of concern, highlighted as a need in the recent driving ban. Instrumental in the formulation of the Andover Growth Policy, Mrs. Lake states she is acutely aware of the problems of the town, and its growth.

A resident of Andover for almost 20 years, she lives at 22 Greenwood Road with her husband Herbert. Educated at Douglass College in New Jersey, she is the mother of two grown children and has five grandchildren.

AYBL Junior Leaders Neck And Neck

THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 16, 1978

With its season at the midpoint, division races are beginning to shape up in the Andover Youth Basketball League.

The tightest race so far is in the Junior Division. The Jaguars and Tigers are deadlocked with overall records of 8-1. The Leopards are the only other team with a better than even record, standing at 5-4.

Boston College stands alone atop the Intermediate Division with a perfect 8-0 record. Dartmouth is two games off the pace at 6-2. Harvard and Villanova also remain in contention at 5-3.

In the Senior Division, the Lakers remain undefeated at 6-0. The Bullets and Celtics are two games behind at 4-2 while the Knicks stand at an even .500 with a 3-3 record.

Junior Division

The Tigers brought an end to the AYBL's longest winning streak, eight straight by the Jaguars, in last week's action. The Leopards and Lions picked up the other victories.

Tigers 28, Jaguars 24

The Tigers took over sole possession of first place in the division's second round of play by avenging their only loss of the season, a 26-16 defeat by the Jaguars. The Bengals jumped out to a 14-10 halftime lead and never trailed. The game actually was iced in the third period as Kevin Bardsley, Steve Blair and Tim Perry each hit a pair of hoops to give the Tigers an 11 point bulge going into the final quarter. Brian Mackey and Dan Sheehan keyed a last period rally for the Jaguars, each hitting a pair of baskets, but the Tigers were able to hold on to rasck up their fifth consecutive win. Tom Novelline had an outstanding floor game for the winners, blocking several shots and making many key steals.

Tigers: Bradsley 8, Blair 6, Joe Hart 6, Perry 6 and Larry Aiello 2. 14-14-28.
Jaguars: Mackey 13, Sheehan 4, Chris Comparato 3, Curtis 2 and Lombardo 2. 10-14-24.

Leopards 28, Cougars 25

The Cougars were again frustrated in their search for a victory. In dropping to the Leopards, the Cougars have now lost four games in this round by a total of only six points. The Cougars took a 16-14 lead going into the second half but the shooting hands went cold in the third period as the Leopards took a 20-16 lead going to the final period. The Cougars made another run at the Leopards in the final quarter behind Fran Sullivan, Ed McParland, John Terrion and Paul Oshan, but Mark Doherty and Mike Burke cut the rally short with key hoops. Oshan had a fine boards game and McParland a fine defensive game for the Cougars.

Leopards: Doherty 12, Matt Ostrowski 10, Burke 2, Jerry Buss 2 and Paul Kelly 2. 14-14-28.

Cougars: Sullivan 12, Oshan 9, McParland 2 and Terrion 2. 16-9-25.

Lions 17, Panthers 9

The Lions evened their record at 2-2 in topping the Panthers. Outstanding defense by Lydia Wise and Kean Knight helped the Lions to a 8-2 halftime margin. The Panthers rallied to cut the margin to three entering the final period as Mike Melia got hot and the defense stiffened. The final quarter was all Lions as Mike Morris, Greg Hopwood and Mark Patti hit key hoops to ice the victory.

Lions: Hopwood 10, Patti 4 and Morris 3. 8-9-17.

Panthers: Melia 7 and Glenn Livermore 2. 2-7-9.

Intermediate Division

Boston College ran their undefeated streak to eight while Harvard, N.C. State and Dartmouth picked up the other wins in the opening game of the division's second half of play.

Harvard 36, Holy Cross 32

The Crimson and the Crusaders played a see-saw contest that was undecided until the final minute of play. The Crusaders, leading by three after the quarter, found themselves down by four entering the second half. Keyed by Billy Vickers nine third-period markers, Holy Cross cut the margin to 23-22 entering the final period. Vickers and Chris Coots continued hot in the opening minutes of the final quarter as Holy Cross took a four point lead. Then, with Brian Bedell controlling the boards and hitting 3-4 from the foul line and Scott Zimmerman hitting from all over the floor for 10 last period markers, Harvard rallied to avenge an earlier loss to the Crusaders. The Crimson's Ron Lindquist had an outstanding defensive game.

Harvard: Zimmerman 19, Matt Wells 8, Bedell 7 and Charlie Ziegenbein 2. 16-20-36.

Holy Cross: Vickers 14, Coots 10, Rob Slayton 6 and Jim Terrion 2. 11-21-32.

NC State 28, B.U. 24

NC State broke its own six game losing streak in dropping Boston University to its sixth straight loss. Leading 14-13 at the half, State broke the game open in the third period by outscoring B.U. 11-3 with John Hopwood and Eric Swift leading the way. B.U.'s Tom Powers led a last period rally, hitting 7 of his game-high 14 markers as B.U. closed the gap for the final margin.

NC State: Marc Bolan 9, Swift 9, Hopwood 7 and Brett Larrabee 3. 14-14-28.

B.U.: Powers 14, Jon Bram 5, Mike Redgate 3 and Ed Melia 2. 13-11-24.

Bantams Check Off Pair Of Wins

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Bantam A traveling hockey team forechecked a pair of opponents into submission recently, chalking up identical 2-1 wins over Newburyport and the visiting Brunswick, Me. Bantams.

The outstanding defensive performances enabled Coach Dick Neal's crew to improve its overall record to 5-9-0.

"We received more concerted efforts from everyone in the two games," noted Neal. "We were more physical and aggressive than we have been this season."

Andover, 2-1

Andover fell behind Newburyport 1-0 at 6:49 of the first period, when a shot broke through goalie Dave Leitch's pads and the puck slid just over the goalline.

That was the last time Leitch was beaten, however.

Dave Deloury pulled the locals even 1-1 less than three minutes later, at 9:18, pocketing his seventh seasonal goal with assists to Ed Sullivan and Juhn Fuchs.

"We had a flurry around the Newburyport net, and after several shots Deloury jammed the puck home," related Neal.

The game remained deadlocked until the midway point of the third period, 6:08, when Fuchs netted his fifth goal after a Deloury set-up.

Deloury started the game-winning play from behind the net, passing to Fuchs out front for a 10-foot shot that beat the Newburyport goalie cleanly.

Both clubs were hit with four minor penalties in the game, and Andover was forced to kill a late 'Port powerplay to preserve the win.

Neal cited Scott Heseltine, George Price and Ken Banfield for especially strong performances in the game.

Andover, 2-1

Kris Williams matched Dave Leitch's effort in goal, holding Brunswick off the board for two periods and limiting the Maine visitors to one goal at the Phillips Academy rink.

Craig Hyslip provided Andover with a 1-0 cushion at 9:43 of the opening period, intercepting a Brunswick clearing pass at the point and drilling a shot that was accidentally deflected in by an opposing defenseman. The unassisted red-lighter was Hyslip's third of the season.

George Price delivered the eventual game-winner to make it 2-0 at 9:39 of the middle session.

"Pete Dunn fed a pass to Ken Banfield on the left, and he in turn hit Price breaking over the blueline. George scored on a 15-footer from the right side," recalled Neal.

The goal was Price's second of the season.

Brunswick spoiled Williams' shutout bid at 1:17 of the final stanza, capping a 3-on-2 break with a rising 45-foot shot that whistled past Kris to the short side.

Brunswick pulled its goalie for the last

40 seconds but failed to net the equalizer.

Schedule

Andover played North Andover back-to-back games earlier this week at Brooks School and Merrimack College.

The locals return to the ice wars this Sunday when they host pesky Lawrence at Phillips Academy. Faceoff time is 4 p.m.

'Tribute'

Robert Picardo and Catherine Hicks have been signed by producer Morton Gottlieb for featured roles in "Tribute," Bernard Slade's new play starring Jack Lemmon, which premieres at Boston's Colonial Theatre on Monday, April 10. "Tribute" begins previews on April 6 and will run through April 29th. Arthur Storch is the director.

win in dropping Villanova. Trailing by two at the half, Villanova rallied to tie at 20 entering the final quarter. Defense, which had dominated the first half of play, disappeared in the final period as the Green outscored the Wildcats 22-14 for the final margin. Steve Johnson hit for 12 and Tom Kannam 10, including the last six Dartmouth markers, to ice the win. Gerry Ahern played a fine defensive game for the Green.

Dartmouth: Johnson 22, Kannam 16, Ahern 2 and Mark Nardone 2. 8-34-42.

Villanova: Chuck Frazzette 12, Phil Puccia 10, Rob Harrison 8 and Brandon Bachner 4. 6-28-34.

B.C. 29, Northeastern 13

Boston College raced to a 13-3 first period lead and then turned the game over to the reserves in racking up its eighth straight victory. The streak ties for the AYBL's longest of the season. B.C. led by 14 at the half and 16 after three periods in the romp. Dean Lockwood and Dean Orfanedes had fine floor games both ways while Chris Wilson had an outstanding defensive game for the Eagles.

B.C.: Dick Kelley 11, Todd Lockwood 8, Jim Lowe 4, Jon Baer 2, Orfanedes 2 and Wilson 2. 19-10-29.

Clearing Of Sidewalk Is Up To Homeowner

By Linda S. Corbett

The police department's safety officer this week will be taking a careful look at the Elm Street area, where parents have been fearing for the safety of youngsters who walk to Doherty School.

As in many other areas in town, the sidewalks have not been plowed.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert told the school committee Tuesday night he would take whatever action the officer recommends, and noted that they are already considering asking the selectmen to close down the street when the youngsters are in transit.

If the street were to be closed while the youngsters are in transit, as some parents have suggested, it would have to be by action of the selectmen. The plain fact of the matter is, Seifert said, is that the town is not responsible for clearing sidewalks.

Seifert said that plowing has been a service the town has provided in the past, and that it's fairly easy for the plows to pass through a three to four-inch snowfall. In last week's storm, however, the Department of Public Works had its hands full elsewhere.

Seifert said the law states that anyone who owns property must clean snow off their own sidewalks and, he said, there needs to be a written snow removal policy and an education effort to spell out homeowner's responsibilities.

Seifert said people are spoiled because they have had the service in the past, and added that the people who have had the most service are the ones who squawked loudest last week.

Committeeman Elaine Viehmann said that the service had always been provided for the 20 years she's been in town, and that there need to be some teeth in the regulation that requires homeowners to clear the walks if it's going to work.

If it was hard for the plows to get through last week, it was also hard for the homeowners, she said, but she noted that residents of Summer Street had managed to plow their own walks so their children could get to school.

Chairman David Ahouse said he began getting calls last Thursday from parents concerned for the safety of their youngsters. He noted that the sidewalks are fairly close to the street in the area, and that plowing would be even more difficult because instead of three feet, they were facing seven or eight feet left by the road plows.

He said he had talked last week with Acting town Manager Sheldon Cohen, Selectman Chairman Susan Poore and Seifert, and that there appeared to be a lot of cooperation between the town and the schools on snow clearing priorities.

Seifert said he had met with DPW Director Robert McQuade at the height of the storm and because of the magnitude and the expended budget, they opted to plow walks half the distance away from school as they had in the past.

Seifert said, however, they would continue to plow school property itself, including school walks, drives and parking lots.

The question of busing the youngsters was brought up by one of the mothers from the Elm Street area, but Seifert said that once they started the precedent of busing, there would be requests whenever there was a storm, and they'd end up having to bus everybody in town.

Seifert reported that the Bancroft roof, which is under study as a result of heavy leaking and sagging during the January blizzard, was leaking again, and that he had directed Plant Manager Al Hart to examine all schools and put a dollar value on storm damage for which federal funds might be forthcoming.

In still another matter, Seifert noted that the community was fortunate in not having a power failure during the storm, but that he didn't feel the town would have been prepared for such an eventuality.

He said he felt a disaster plan is needed in the event Andover was locked up for a couple of weeks.

The usual place for people to gather, he said is in the schools, and he felt something should be done in that area by the community similar to the old civil defense centers.

Pee Wee A Team Hosts Tourney

The Andover Pee Wee "A" team will host the first Andover Pee Wee Invitational Tournament this Sunday at the Phillips Academy rink. First-round games are scheduled with Norwood meeting Chelmsford at 4:00 while the locals play the Merrimack, N.H. squad at 5:10. Consolation and championship games will be played Feb. 21 at the Merrimack College rink beginning at 6:20 p.m. Coach Paul Gilmartin hopes his steadily improving team will show the kind of effective play that has marked their season after a shaky start.

The team went through seven games without a victory in competition with "A" teams after pummeling the Brookline "B" squad in mid-November. Since that drought they have played in cycles, with no winning or losing streak longer than three games. The overall record stands at 9 wins, 13 losses and 5 ties through the end of January. Outscoring all opponents in total goals 84-80, they have lost six one-goal games, including two to nearby rival North Andover. The new Merrimack Valley League provided the Andover boys with a cheery note as they went 3-1 in the early games of league play that began in January.

The first line of 12-year-olds, Gregg Sacco, John Best and J.J. Downey provides the greatest scoring power, accounting for 41 of the team's goals. Sacco is a rugged, classy skater who is equally adroit digging the puck out of the corners and shifting past defensemen. Best has proven to be a center with a fine sense of teamwork, illustrated by his team-high 20 assists. Downey is a deceptive, powerful shooter who can beat the goalie from a variety of angles. Robbie Calder, a fast skater and eager forechecker is the fourth-leading scorer. Scott Round and Karl Fredrickson have been stingy goaltenders, frequently keeping the team in the game with exciting saves.

The younger players have provided pleasant surprises. Little Jim Daly has proven the value of effective skating as he harries the opposition at every opportunity. Zack Apgar moved up from last year's Squirt team and frequently outprints the opposition. A number of his goals have been set up by timely passes from another former Squirt, Dean LoPresti, who shows a fine sense of position hockey. Mark Walsh, a peppery team enthusiast and probably the most improved player, has also helped in these scoring combinations. Billy Donovan and Jon Crawford have provided solid support on the blue line; Donovan is also gritty as a forward when lines had to be juggled due to illness or injury.

Tommy Duncan, a tenacious defenseman, and Todd Ongaro were lost to the team through injuries, although Gilmartin hopes to have Duncan back on the ice before the end of the season. Ongaro is coming off a knee injury and has proven steady at his new center position.

Andover has won when it can get a steady flow of shots at the opposing goalies. Jeff Runge's excellent skating ability has yielded many exciting rushes and he can always be counted on for determined play in the offensive zone. In addition to the first line's power, Zack Apgar had one two-goal game and Jon Crawford picked up three assists in a victory over Salem, N.H. John Young's agile skating is an asset that allowed Gilmartin to shift him to defense following Duncan's injury. Michael Twomey, a forward on last year's "A" squad has shown fine play this year on defense, and is always a threat to start a scoring play from the blue line.

Gilmartin has scheduled games with teams new to the Andover schedule and he hopes the tournament can become a regular feature of the Andover Hockey Association season.

Photographs by John McWilliams and Sandy Noyes are on exhibit at the Addison Gallery of American Art, Phillips Academy, through Feb. 26.

McWilliams' black and white photographs of the South are an unexpected view of the land and man's working of it. McWilliams' landscape images of erosion, farming, and both new and derelict architecture have a sense of hope, a harmony between what has been and what might be.

McWilliams comments, "In most cases, the land in the South has been held in contempt and has laid in limbo. In the 'New South' the land is literally being ripped open to reveal prophecies." McWilliams' images disclose a mystery behind the casually noticed, visible reality.

McWilliams is head of the photography program at Georgia State University in Atlanta. He photographed the series being shown during the last two years while travelling through the South with the help of National Endowment for the Arts grant, a Photography Fellowship in 1975, and a Guggenheim Fellowship in 1976. McWilliams has exhibited widely throughout the U. S. and is represented in numerous museum collections.

Noyes' images of nature and interiors emphasize the subtle possibilities of black and white photography. Noyes works in a series and each photograph shows his fascination and thorough investigation of the interplay of light, texture and tone.

"I am usually seeking subject matter which will help me realize harmonizing feelings in the image rather than sensations of conflict and turbulence. Frequently, though, the subject seems to dictate its own extremely specific life in the image."

Noyes is an instructor at the International Center of Photography, New York City. Last year, he was co-recipient of a National Endowment on the Arts grant for "Seven Photographers: The Delaware Valley." He has shown his work recently at the Nexus Gallery in Atlanta and the Pittsburg Gallery of Photographic Art.

The Addison Gallery is open free to the public, Tuesday through Saturday from 10 to 5 and Sunday from 2:30 to 5.

Korean Photos On Exhibit

A selection of 19th-century photographs from the Percival Lowell collection which document traditional Korean life shortly before it was drastically changed by Western influence will be on view at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston through May.

Taken by Percival Lowell, Councillor to the first Korean Special Mission to the United States in the winter of 1883, the photographs capture the last vestiges of traditional life before the Japanese solidified their control over Korea.

Approximately 20 photographs will be on view.

Open House Washington's Birthday At Bardetti Volkswagen

Paul Lazzaro, general manager of Bardetti Volkswagen, 915 So. Main St. (Rt. 125), Ward Hill expects sales of Volkswagen in the area will increase during 1978. "We have seen very strong acceptance of the new generation VW's," he said.

Sales nationally were up 29% in 1977. People are realizing that while other car companies are planning for the future, VW is already building cars that are years ahead of their time.

In fuel efficiency, the Rabbit Diesel is the top-rated car by the Environmental Protection Agency, with 53 mpg. highway in EPA tests. The federally mandated "Corporate Average Fuel Economy" figure for 1985 is 27.5 mpg., while Volkswagen reports preliminary corporate fuel economy for 1978 of 27.8 mpg.

Passive safety devices requiring no action by occupants are built into every VW. All have energy absorbing zones built into their front and rear-end structures and some Rabbit models are equipped with VW's unique passive restraint system. Passive restraints will be required in 1984. VW has had them since 1975.

All of the 1978 VW's share another feature many cars today lack — space efficiency.

VW's Bus is a great alternative to conventional wagons for drivers who want to carry up to 8 passengers or lots of bulky gear with no sacrifice in economy. All of VW's cars are roomy. In fact, the smallest sedan, the Rabbit, has more trunk space than some cars you think of as being large.

For full sales and service in the complete VW line — Rabbit, Dasher, Scirocco, Bus, Camptmobile and Beetle Convertible, see Bardetti Volkswagen, 915 So. Main St., Ward Hill. Tel. 687-0696 or 374-0711.

By DOUGLAS N. HOWE

REALTOR

OVER OR UNDER-SPENDING

Some people spend more than they can afford when buying a house. Equally painful is the mistake of buying the cheapest possible house and then suffering through its shortcomings.

I have no intention of stating how much anyone can afford for a house. This is a very personal decision. There are guidelines of monthly averages that lending institutions use for housing expenses. But — like the "height/weight" charts printed on scales — these are only averages.

Don't hold back if you feel you can exceed the guidelines. When you are willing and sufficiently disciplined to economize on other expenses, you can get a better house than the average calls for. A good house may seem costly, but the rewards are well worth it. Investing in a house that's a little more expensive gives you an excellent inflation hedge while your whole family enjoys a better place to live. And often, the resale opportunity is brighter.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

We have finished Carriage Chase & this home is sold, but we are building others at BLUEBERRY HILL. Come & visit us there!

Our Service includes careful development of the land, skillful architectural design and quality construction. If you have not been able to find "your house," and are wondering about building it, we would be very happy to discuss design plans with you. Let us show you how successfully we have done this for over one hundred Andover families. Together we can create a home that will be very personally yours. Choice lots are now available for homes to be built in the upper price range.

—DIRECTIONS: South Main St. (Rte. 28) to Salem Street at Phillips Andover Academy, right on Holt Road, left into Blueberry Hill Road.

Delay Registrar Appointments

Appointment of two new members to the board of registrars of voters may be made at the meeting of the selectmen Tuesday night at the water treatment plant.

The board delayed the appointment this week and requested additional information on the duties and terms of appointment from the town clerk with whom the registrars work.

The vacancies were created by the death of Harry Sellars and the decision by Eugene Zalla to retire, that decision coming a week ago.

Only Registrar Thomas Brennan remains on the three member board.

Monday night, Selectman Chairman Susan T. Poore asked Acting Manager Sheldon S. Cohen about the appointment of the two new members, noting that the board a year ago had requested the town clerk to consider appointment and employment of women in the election department.

Cohen said that since that time many women had been named to varying positions as clerks and poll workers.

The comment by Mrs. Poore was prompted by the recommendation for appointment of two men to the reg-istar vacancies by Town Clerk Elden R. Salter.

Mrs. Poore also noted that the appointments seem to be for life terms, as the board indicated a desire to put off the appointment for a week.

Cohen explained that the problem with delay is that the registrars are now holding special sessions to register voters for the town election and town meeting. With two vacancies, it allows only the town clerk and the one registrar to facilitate the process.

Selectman Philip Salamone felt the appointment could be put off for a week in order to get additional information on the duties of registrars and their terms.

Both Mrs. Poore and Salamone noted that it appeared that the members register voters, which can be handled in the town clerk's office, thus the delay would not be detrimental.

Actually, board members are appointed for three year terms and the composition must be two Republican members and two Democrats. The town clerk also serves as a registrar.

Their duties include, in addition to registering voters, checking the voting list annually with the street list to purge the election list of persons who have moved, died or, for any reason are no longer eligible voters.

The registrars must also examine and verify signatures on nomination papers, a process which will get underway following the filing deadline next Tuesday.

The registrars also supervise elections and verify the voting tally.

Nicholas A. Rizzo, Jr.

Appointed Democrat Chairman

Nicholas A. Rizzo, Jr., of Andover, has been re-appointed to membership on the Democratic Congressional Campaign Dinner Committee for 1978. The appointment was jointly announced by Congressman James C. Corman (D-CA), Chairman of the House Committee and Senator Wendell Ford (D-KY), Chairman of the Senate Committee, at the Democratic Leadership Dinner held at the Regency Hyatt Hotel, Washington, D.C.

Rizzo, prominent Andover businessman and civic leader will again represent Massachusetts on the Committee. The annual Democratic Congressional Dinner will be held on March 15, at the Washington Hilton Hotel. The dinner will honor speaker of the House Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr. (D-Mass.) and the Chairmen of the standing committees of both the House and Senate. The committee hopes to raise $2 million for the forthcoming House and Senate elections.

Rizzo, president and treasurer of Auto Specialty Sales Co., Inc., of Andover, has long been identified with the Democratic fund-raiser. His business and civic affiliations include: director of United Consolidated Industries, Hanover, Md., director of Blue Chip Products Company, Falsington, Penn.; The Governmental Affairs Committee of the Automotive Warehouse Distributors Association; director of the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce; chairman of the board of trustees of the Essex Agricultural & Technical Institute; trustee of Austin Preparatory School, Reading; trustee of the Andover Savings Bank, Andover, Board of Governors of the New York Athletic Club, NYC; Lanam Club, Andover; Lawrence Lodge No. 65, B.P.O.E.; Hamblett Health Club, Lawrence, and many other civic and fraternal organizations.

Rizzo will be responsible for raising funds from throughout Massachusetts for the Congressional Committee.

According to a U. S. Labor Department publication, "U.S. Working Women," women occupy the majority of clerical and service jobs; they make up about 40 percent of professional-technical, sales, and operative workers.

Power Co. To Effect Savings

New England Power Company, which supplies power to Massachusetts Electric Company, has announced its customers will be the recipients of a $15 million annual saving in fuel costs because of rulings by two federal agencies.

The Department of Energy recently granted the company an oil import license which allows New England Power to buy foreign oil without paying the 63 cent per barrel tariff currently levied by the government. This is the first such license granted to any electric utility in the nation.
